A sigh for the days and feelings never more to be.

Miss Matilda Forman Paxton will arrive from Platte City, Mo., this week to be the guest until Monday of her relatives in the county, the Marshalls and Formans.

Miss Paxton is on her way to the opening of the Jamestown Exposition, where she will visit her Paxton relatives of the Old Dominion.

Her father, Mr. William M. Paxton, is a native of this county, but left here more than seventy years ago, going to what was then considered the extreme West, so far as civilization was concerned.

At that time all beyond him and the Pacific coast was practically a howling wilderness, inhabited by the Indian and buffalo.

Mr. Paxton, now about ninety years of age, has seen all that immense territory transformed into thriving farms, towns and cities.

With the exception of deafness, Mr. Paxton is yet well preserved and able to do almost as much work as ever.

No man in Missouri is more highly regarded for true moral worth, integrity and intelligence.

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? These women may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, headache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is

DEMETRE'S STORY

Somewhat Explains Shooting of James—Macedonian Feud Terminates in Maysville

Stories are afloat to the effect that Demetre Naom, who attempted to assassinate another Macedonian named Thomas James, at Shanahan's railroad camp just below Maysville a few days ago, was somewhat justified for the act, and it is alleged by the Cincinnati Post that Naom's wife was outraged in Macedonia by a party of soldiers of whom James was one. The Post says—

Naom could not tell his story for himself and because his countrymen, who knew, would not tell, Naom was made the subject of romance, the leader of a murder conspiracy, for the execution of which he was to get a price. The true story was kept a secret to his countrymen by a mutual bond of silence.

Naom began acting strangely after he received a letter from Macedonia several months ago.

Macedonians who lived with him on Front near Plum street asked him what had happened. He cried and was silent.

He worked in a construction gang in which

James as interpreter was also a subordinate boss. He lost his job and came back to Cincinnati and between rage and tears revealed his story. The story was in the letter that had so changed Demetre. Demetre has a wife and child in Macedonia. The Bulgarians, old-time enemies of the Macedonians, invaded the village where the wife and child lived. The soldiers outraged the wife. That was the story the letter told.

"They have brought shame to my home and now they conspire to ruin me," Naom declared. He blamed James for the loss of his job. His distorted fancy made the interpreter a party to the "conspiracy."

From that time he planned revenge. William Stammatt, Macedonian baker at Front and Plum streets says Naom bought a big knife. He showed it and said it was to take the life of James. Then he planned to go back to Macedonia to levy revenge on the men who had soiled his home.

Last week Demetre disappeared. "He has gone to take his revenge," his countrymen said.

The same evening Stammatt received a telegram: "James has been shot. Look for Demetre."

It seems that these Macedonian-Greek-Bulgarian societies have brought their feuds to America, where they think liberty is license and that they can stab, shoot and assassinate like the Croats, the Tzellers, the Hatfields and the Hargises.

Reports have been issued by the Greek Consular offices in New York City stating that the Bulgarians have murdered Greeks in San Francisco, Terre Haute and other towns, and are working Eastward, preferring to do their work in railroad camps where Greeks only are employed. It is claimed that the vanguard of the Bulgarians has reached Cincinnati, and that they intend to make that city their headquarters.

Naom, who cannot speak English, is entitled to a square deal, anyway.

In default of $500 he is now in Jail and his case is set for trial next Wednesday. Representative Virgil McKnight is his attorney.

F. M. Brossart, steward on the H. M. Stanley, who some months ago was taken seriously ill, expects to be able to resume his duties within the next two weeks.

The River Coal Company of Pittsburgh has begun towing coal to the St. Louis Gas Company. They have the largest contract they ever had, 400 barges of coal, making in all about 5,000,000 bushels of coal. They expect to have three boats in the trade this summer.

The towboat Delta, owned by the Monongahela Consolidated Coal Company, on the way up the Kanawha River with tow of empty barges, was burned to the water's edge at Lock 4 near Charleston, W. Va., Tuesday. Fire started in the kitchen. There were no fatalities. The vessel is a total loss.

The boat was valued at $12,000. There was no insurance.

The W. W. O'Neil has just established a record for himself. On her last trip South from Louisville she had in tow 28 coalboats containing 28,000 tons of coal; six coal barges containing 3,000 tons of coal; three model barges containing 1,600 tons each; three model barges containing 4,800 tons manufactured iron. The O'Neil and tow ran from Louisville to New Orleans in nine days and fourteen hours, beating all previous records of the Raymond Hornor and Charles Brown. This is the record for all towboats to date in the coal-towing trade.

Mr. Charles L. McAtee of West Second street is quite ill.

A steady rain began falling last evening at dusk and continued late into the night.

Mrs. William Hendrickson died a few days ago at her home at Tollesboro, aged 62.

Henry Scott was struck and killed by C. and O. Flyer No. 4 just above Vanceburg Monday night last.

The various Oddfellows Lodges of Lewis county will hold a joint anniversary celebration at Concord April 26th.

Epworth League social tonight at the Third Street M. E. Church. Good music. Mr. Kenneth P. Clark of Aberdeen who has gained considerable prominence as a clarinet soloist will render one of his best solos. The invitation is heartily extended to all members and friends of the Church to attend.

A number of Greek immigrants, passing through Cincinnati en route to Indiana, exchanged dollars for quarters with a party of swindlers in the Union Depot, the Bulgarians telling the immigrants that dollars good in Ohio were not good in Indiana.

IS SHE MALIGNED?

Two Sides to Every Story and Evelyn Thaw's Mother Speaks From Her Heart

There are two sides to every story and we would like to hear what Evelyn Thaw's mother has to say about the celebrated case. Mrs. Holman has told part, but not all. We are beginning to believe that she has been lied on by the newspapers and that she has been unjustly abused. Hear her—

"As solemnly as if these words were uttered with my last breath, I wish here to affirm that my love for my daughter is as deep and intense as it was when I first held her in my arms a helpless babe. Resentment I may have felt, but never hated her nor sought vengeance. I feel for her the deepest sorrow for her woes, and regardless of all that has transpired my affection is unaltered. A word from her at any time would be welcome. The door of my house is open to her and will swing at her slightest tap, today, tomorrow, or at all time while I live."

A very bad woman and an unnatural mother, would never utter such heartfelt words. But read again—

"If Evelyn underwent the experience that is said to have befallen her," said Mrs. Holman, "she did not take me into her confidence. Had she told me what she told the Thaw Jury it would not have been necessary for Harry Thaw to kill Stanford White. I would have done it myself."

You pay your money and you take your choice.

New School Building!

Owing to the fact of the School Board's having bought the old Perkhonae (our warehouse) for the site for the new High School Building, we are obliged to move all our vehicles within the next 60 days; and we have figured that it would be better to sell them than to move, a storeroom in Maysville is pretty scarce just now, and besides it is very expensive to move four or five carloads of crated vehicles.

Therefore!

We are beginning today the most phenomenal sale of vehicles ever held in Maysville, and a word to the wise should be sufficient. "If you are contemplating the purchase of a rig of any kind, now is your opportunity."

Mr. Ed. Boggs, the blind musician, residing at Boggs, near here, delivered a lecture on "The Power of Music" at the Reform Church here on Saturday evening last.

Miss Annie Gidding has fitted up a neat millinery room in the Touray building and has just returned from the city with a fresh stock of goods that takes the ladies' eyes.

The following Tollesboros were transacting business in Cincinnati last week: Mrs. Nanpie Tenger, Miss Annie Gidding, Misses Dora Hise and Kate Hendrickson, Postmaster Grigby and Charles L. Burdick.

Mrs. William D. Henderson, aged 62 years, whose serious illness was reported in these columns recently, died suddenly at her home here on Wednesday morning last, from heart failure. She was buried in the Cemetery of the M. E. Church, South, here on the Friday following. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn her loss.

Rev. F. S. Pollitt who has been in New York City for some time past, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Pollitt here.

FEARIS.

Well, it's going to thaw out.

Loafers will have to go to work soon as the season is getting late.

James F. Hook is now in the city engaged in some work or business.

Snows No. 10 and 11 fell here last week with a regular Dakota blizzard.

June weather in March and January winter in April seems to reverse matters.

State Inspector Henry Hise, in his report to the Governor on the condition of the fiscal affairs in Owen county, charged three former Sheriffs, among them June W. There's more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many a Maysville Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching, With distressing urinary disorders, Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Maysville people endorse this claim:

Mrs. Mary Thomas, 204 Limestone street Maysville, Ky., says:

"I am only too pleased to confirm the statement I made in the spring of 1900 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, after they had relieved me of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. During the years that have elapsed since I made that statement I have had occasion to give Doan's Kidney Pills a further trial and I have found that it requires only a few doses to ward off attacks of kidney trouble. It can also point to the case of my boy, twenty years old, who at the time I first used Doan's Kidney Pills was troubled a great deal with weakness of the kidneys and could not control the secretions properly. I gave him Doan's Kidney Pills and he improved rapidly under their use. The relief he found has proved lasting and from his experience and mine I am certainly warranted in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-McMunn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
